The patterns are beautiful, the colorings exquisite and the prices so reasonable that every woman can have, at a very small outlay of money, dainty, cool and becoming dresses. There is genuine eccentricity in some of the weaves—regular little tricks of manner—heavy threads when you expect fine—splashes of color right in the middle of stripe—peculiar, but

69c. a Yard for Silks Worth Up to $2.00.

That's what we have been selling all the past week. We had 10,000 yards when the sale began, and now the quantity has dwindled down to about 2,500 yards. In order to bring about a clean sweep of the balance on hand, we have gone through our own immense Silk stock and selected here and there some new, bright and beautiful patterns of high standard quality, and added them to this list in order to give the second send-off a boom that will equal the first announcement. Remember that these Silks are all elegant in quality, handsome in design, stanch in wear and downtrodden in price.

Lively Lining Leaders.

When it comes to wear, fit and appearance of a dress, linings deserve the greatest share of the honors. Naturally we lay extra stress upon the feature of service, for our stock is bought with that in view. For it's an exacting stock, priced exactly right for exacting shoppers.

Reductions in ladies' suits & skirts unheard of before.

Woolen suits and skirts must give way to the ducks, the crashes and the piques, and we've an enormous stock. We propose to pay you to take them away by letting you have them at cost and less. We have made merciless reductions!

$5.98 for $12.50 suits. Fashionable black cheviot serge suits; juckets of which are lined with serge silk and are in double-breasted, fly-front and single-breasted effects; new skirts, full in width; both garments thoroughly tailor made, and which formerly sold for $12.50, to go new for $5.98.

$1.98 for $3 skirts. $1.98 for Indies' lustrous black brilliant-ine skirts, with the new box backs; hand-some, worthful skirts, which formerly sold for $3. $12.50 for $25 suits. In this lot are the handsomest and most fashionable broadcloths, Venetians and the like, in black, blue, ian, castor, mode and red; with jackets; in several styles and silk lined; with skirts having the new box-pleat backs; which sold up to $25, for $12.50.

$2.98 for $4 skirts.

Another shipment of those silk waists ready, and only $4.75.

The second shipment of those handsome silk waists went on sale this morning at the unrestricted choice of $4.75. It may sound incredible, but it is a positive fact that these waists in this lot are $12 to $15 values-consist of the handsomest black and colored taffeta silks, white satins, etc., and are newest in effect and perfect in fit and workmanship. They are trimmed most elaborately—tucked all over, some of them; others are corded; others are hemstitched and corded and hemstitched and tucked and silk embroidered; there are many of the new handkerchief waists in the lotthe handsome large plaids which are so very stylish just now. All of them have the new high stock collars and the new cuffs and new French backs. Choice for $4.75, and you may count it the best silk waist offering of the decade.

Shirt waists at last-of-the-season prices.

The Pastor of Eastern Presbyterian

Rev. Dr. Thomas Chalmers Easton, pasor of the Eastern Presbyterian Church, who was sued last week for $20,000 damages by Miss Olga Nethersole, the actress, the suit being based upon a sermon de livered by the minister defendant April 1. made an explanatory statement to his congregation at the evening service yesterday. Just before dismissing those present Dr. Easton stepped forward and read a statement. He said:

"I desire to make an explanatory statement regarding the discourse delivered from this pulpit on the evening of April 1 on 'Suppression of the Immoral Drama and of Impure Literature,' which has led to legal proceedings brought against me for $20,000 damages by Miss Olga Nethersole. This is an 'explanatory' statement. Mark

"When I quoted the words 'lewd actress' in speaking of Miss Olga Nethersole in the role of Sapho I had reference, not to her personal character, of which I have no knowledge, but to the character of the role she is playing, which is sufficiently shown by the interference of the police authorities in several cities, and by the fact that it is admitted to be the realistic picture of a precitive playing her. it is admitted to be the realistic picture of a prostitute plying her trade. Obscenity or lewdness is defined by the highest courts in many decisions, of which the following is representative. Justice Brady says: 'If its effect be to excite improper emotions and inward thoughts; if it suggest an impure sense or is liable to produce a depraved state or condition of mind, or if it is treated in such a way as to arouse improper read state or condition of mind, or if it is treated in such a way as to arouse improper passion, then it would be indecent under our law as declared. Judge Benedict of New York and Judge Gildersteeve of New York might also be quoted. I had not the slightest intention of denouncing Miss Nethersole's personal character, but that of the persons she impersonated, involving, as it does, a widespread and perniclous influence upon society. This explanation is given so as to be as public as the original discourse."
